GARY GILLIS LEAVES KENTUCKY PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

FRANKFORT, Ky. (March 19, 2004) Gary Gillis has resigned from the Kentucky Public Service Commission (PSC) to accept a gubernatorial appointment as Woodford County Property Valuation Administrator. Gov. Ernie Fletcher made the appointment March 15 and Gillis resigned that day.

"We will miss Gary's knowledge and experience," PSC Chairman Mark David Goss said. "He has served Kentucky well, and I particularly appreciated the help and advice he gave me when I joined the PSC. We wish him well."

Gillis, who is a certified public accountant, was appointed to the PSC in 1997. He was reappointed and named vice chairman in 2001, serving in that capacity until his resignation.

No replacement has been named to serve the balance of Gillis' term, which ends June 30, 2005.
